

Troy Special Services Parent Advisory Committee

Who we are: Community of parents whose students receive special education services within the Troy School District

How we can help:

- Answer your questions and/or connect you to people who can help
- Stay on top of issues that impact special education in this district and count
- Post information and resources on the website
- Provide presentations and seminars focused on useful and relevant topics
- Provide opportunities to socialize with other parents
- Present an annual Special Education Appreciate Night with Outstanding Staff Awards to say “Thank You” to all persons serving our students with special needs
